- · Value Partners China Greenchip Fund Limited (The "Fund") invests primarily in companies established in Greater China or which derive a majority of their revenue from business related to Greater China.
- The Fund invests in China, China-related companies and medium or small capitalization companies and is therefore subject to emerging market and concentration risks. The value of the Fund can be extremely volatile and could go down substantially within a short period of time. It is possible that the entire value of your investment could be lost.
- The Fund may also invest in derivatives which can involve material risks, e.g. counterparty default risk, insolvency or liquidity risk, and may expose the Fund to significant losses.
- In respect of the distribution shares for the Fund, the Manager currently intends to make quarterly dividend distribution. However, the distribution rate is not guaranteed. Distribution yield is not indicative of the return of the Fund. Distribution may be paid from capital of the Fund. Investors should note that where the payment of distributions are paid out of capital, this represents and amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of the amount you originally invested or capital gains attributable to that and may result in an immediate decrease in the value of shares
- You should not make investment decision on the basis of this material alone. Please read the explanatory memorandum for details and risk factors.

Hang Seng Index (Total Return) includes dividend reinvestment whereas Hang Seng Index (Price Return) does not take into account reinvestment of dividends. 3. MSCI China Index (Total Return). Hang Seng Index (Total Return) includes dividend reinvestment of dividend reinvestment after deduction of withholding tax. 4. Each hedged share class will hedge the Fund's base currency back to its currency of denomination on a best efforts basis. However, the volatility of the hedged classes measured in the Fund's base currency may be higher than that of the equivalent class denominated in the Fund's base currency. The hedged classes may be suitable for investors who wish to reduce the impact of changes in exchange rates between their local currency and the Fund's base currency. 5. The Manager currently intends to make quarterly dividend distribution in respect of the A2 QDis Class; actual dividend payout will be subject to the Manager's discretion.
6. The receiving bank may charge a fee for incoming payments. Such fees will reduce the actual amount of dividends received by the investor. 7. Annualized yield of QDis Class is calculated as follows: (Latest dividend amount/NAV as at ex-dividend date) x 4. Investors should note that yield figures are estimated and for reference only and do not represent the performance of the Fund, and that there is no guarantee as to the actual amount of dividend payments. 8. Classification is based on Global Industry Classification Standard (GICS). 9. The profile is based on marke consensus forecast as derived from FactSet and Bloomberg. Harmonic mean methodology is applied to calculate the forecast P/E ratio and P/B ratio. Portfolio yield is the weighted average of the total dividend argins). 13. Investors should note that the base currency of the Fund is in HKD. Conversion to the base currency
