Value Partners tops Asia Hedge Fund 25 four times in a row

(Hong Kong, 10 September 2013) — Value Partners is pleased to announce that it has claimed the top position once again in the latest Asia Hedge Fund 25 ranking, compiled by Institutional Investor's Alpha, a publication focusing on the global hedge fund industry.

It is already the fourth consecutive time Value Partners taking the top spot since 2010. This latest ranking, released in early September, is based on the assets under management of firms/funds as of 1 April 2013.

"I am glad we have been able to achieve strong net inflows in a tough investment environment through strong sales and marketing initiatives as well as product development strategies," said Mr. Timothy Tse, CEO of Value Partners Group Limited. "Our business model is robust and a number of our key products have attracted significant inflow from investors. We will seek to leverage on our existing platform to deliver value for investors."
