

Senior Associate, Information Technology

Job Description:

- Provide front office system support (Charles River IMS) daily support for fund managers, dealers, compliance and fund operation teams
- Participate in the enhancement and upgrade of the system, including new user requirements, system upgrade, new products and new fund types
- Ensure all new requirements and enhancements are delivered with good quality within time and cost
- Work closely with fund operations and back office support team to ensure trade flow correctness and efficiency

Requirements:

- Degree or above with Information Technology or related discipline;
- At least 5 years or above with related work experience;
- Working knowledge in Charles River is essential
- Experience in C#, Java, MS SQL coding including view, stored procedures, user function and performance tuning
- Experience in Crystal Reporting
- Strong experience in working with users and digesting requirements into system implementations
- Experience in back office (fund accounting) systems is a plus
- Experience or knowledge in asset management industry, fund operation and FIX development will be a definite advantage
- Excellent analytical and communication skills in solving problems
- Knowledge of software management tools such as Git, Jenkins, Jira and Confluence
- Able to work under pressure and handle multiple tasks concurrently
- Fluent in English, Mandarin and Cantonese

Interested candidates please send your full resume with current and expected salary in MS Word format at career@vp.com.hk. Personal data will be used for recruitment purpose only.

Only shortlisted candidates will be notified.