Value Partners
Investing through discipline

Senior Associate, Information Technology

Job Description:

- Designing, developing and maintaining intuitive, easy-to-use Intranet and mobile applications, primarily for internal use, using modern "Full Stack" development techniques;
- Technical authority in respect to the development and maintenance of the company's Internet services (website, mobile apps etc.)
- Work with fund management and other finance industry related professionals in a fast moving environment, whilst leveraging development tools to ensure ongoing maintainability

Requirements:

- Degree or above with Information Technology or related discipline
- At least 4 years or above related work experience
- Familiarity developing applications:
- HTML5, CSS3, AJAX front end using JavaScript frameworks (e.g. AngularJS, VueJS or similar)
- Developing Server side API services (Asynchronous C#, nodeJS or similar framework
- Sql server/Entity Framework
- Familiarity with all phases of Software Development Life Cycle including the use of tools such as Git, Jenkins, Jira etc.
- Excellent in problem solving, design and code debugging
- Strong analytical, team player and communication skills
- Experience or knowledge of the asset management or proprietary trading in the brokerage industry will be a significant advantage but applicants who can demonstrate the ability to learn the business domain quickly will be considered
- Spoken and written English essential, Cantonese a major advantage and Mandarin useful

Interested candidates please send your full resume with current and expected salary in MS Word format at career@vp.com.hk. Personal data will be used for recruitment purpose only.

Only shortlisted candidates will be notified.