

Senior Analyst - Fund Selection

Job description:

- Conduct research and due diligence on funds in all asset classes, including alternative investments
- Select the best funds/ETFs to implement asset class views, with the goal to outperform the index in different market environment
- Participate in Multi Asset portfolio management decisions

Job Requirements:

- Degree holder with major in accounting or finance,
- At least 5 years' experience on fund/ manager selection, preferably with experience in all asset classes
- Experience in alternative investment, such as hedge fund due diligence is preferred
- Experience in investing into the funds/managers (vs. just selection and putting on platform) is preferred
- Strong team-player with good interpersonal skills
- Self-motivated with a positive and proactive attitude and able to work under pressure
- Must be able to work under pressure and meet tight deadlines
- Strong business acumen, independent, reliable and proactive

Interested candidates please send your full resume with current and expected salary in MS Word format via email. Personal data will be used for recruitment purpose only.

Only shortlisted candidates will be notified.